

17th March 2020
REF: 201/6/20

To: Italian Libyan Chamber of Commerce

On behalf of all members of the Chamber of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture- Benghazi, Libya, the residents of the city and the Libyan people in general, we are extending all sympathy for those living with or living in fear of being infected with the Coronavirus.

All solidarity with those facing increasing hardship due to the economic cost of the transitory ordeal. All the greetings, encouragement and gratitude of the heroes of the battle against the virus and all the support for the state institutions, including the presidency, government, and local authorities in their struggle against the virus.

All confidence and complete assurance that Italian people will surmount this ordeal safely. In this time of crisis, we are standing firm with you and willing to provide all possible assistance to you.

Let this transient crisis be an opportunity for the best of us to overcome the worst of us.
